DEAR PARISHIONERS OF ST. ANTHONY OF PADUA CHURCH & ANNUNCIATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY CHURCH,

Lenten Mission

We welcome Father James Kubicki, S.J. to St. Anthony of Padua as he introduces the Lenten Mission for Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, March 27/28/29, 2017. The Mission is from 6 – 7 p.m. each night. The Mission theme is the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Each evening’s topic is:

Monday: “The True Love Story”

Tuesday: “Encountering the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus”

Wednesday: “Living in Union with the Heart of Jesus”

Children’s Mission

At the same time as Father Kubicki conducts the mission, we have a Children’s Lenten Mission in Jeanmard Hall for children who are potty trained and up. Children who are age 11 and older can attend as a Counselor and those below the age of 11 can attend as Camper. To prepare activities, registration is required. However, walk-ins will be accepted. The Children’s Lenten Mission activities are: Monday: Holy Thursday/ Last Supper; Tuesday: the Crucifixion; Wednesday: the Resurrection. The Children’s Mission is a childcare service in hopes parents can attend the mission in church.

Men’s ACTS RETREAT

St. Anthony of Padua Parish (Eunice) and

Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary Parish (Duralde)

The Men’s ACTS RETREAT is scheduled for March 30 – April 2, 2017. Parishioners are encouraged to pray for the success of the retreat. Please offer an hour of prayer for the men on retreat and for those on the retreat team. There still is time to sign up on the poster in church. The return mass for the retreat will be the 11:00 a.m. mass on April 1st. Following mass a small reception is held in Jeanmard Hall. As next Sunday’s 11:00 a.m. mass is the return mass, parishioners are invited to attend and welcome all involved in the retreat.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question: Does God make people suffer because of their sins?

Answer: Let’s use the analogy of parents. If your children did something wrong, would you make them suffer? In other words, would you make them feel pain just because they did something wrong? You might chastise them, and the punishment or correction might not be pleasant, but out of love for your children, you will not hurt them just to hurt them. Sometimes, they suffer the consequences of their actions and that is punishment enough. You hope they learn and grow from their choices, both good and bad choices.

God is a loving Father. He allows us to suffer the consequences of our sins, so that we will turn to him for his love and forgiveness.

God wants us to grow in holiness, in virtue, in grace. He gives us free will so that we can choose, and the choices we make either bring us joy or bring us suffering. From that, we learn and grow. God does not hurt us or make us suffer to get even with us. He loves us and wants the best for us. When we suffer, he suffers with us so that we know how much we need him and how much he loves us.

Gospel for the Fourth Sunday of Lent, Cycle A - John 9:1-41

“Neither he nor his parents sinned; it is so that the works of God might be made visible through him.” The prevailing theology of Jesus’ time led people to believe that any kind of disability was a punishment from God. So Jesus’ disciples assumed that the man born blind suffered that affliction because of someone’s sin: either his parents’ or his own. But Jesus sets the record straight. Not only did he reject the idea that the blindness was a punishment for sin; he also went so far as to suggest that this very trial was an opportunity for God’s glory to be revealed.

And sure enough, it was. Jesus worked a miracle of healing for the man who followed his directions and “came back able to see.” So it was that the “works of God” became “visible” through a man who was blind! But, ironically, not everyone had the eyes to see the miracle. The Gospel tells us that “there was a division among them” as they debated whether this remarkable healing was really an act of God.

Jesus stated that he came “so that those who do not see might see.” And so, who are we? Are we blinded by our own expectations of how God is supposed to work? Are we so caught up in our own vision of what we wish would happen that we fail to appreciate what is actually unfolding before our very eyes? It is so easy to perceive trials, disabilities, sickness, and misfortune as a curse or the result of being abandoned by God. But today’s Gospel suggests another reality. In the midst of these very difficulties, God wants to reveal himself, to show his love and mercy. It may not always be in the exact way we expect, but without a doubt, even in these challenging times, God is always at work.

Questions for the Week

John 9:1-41 - In his healing of the man born blind, Jesus teaches the Pharisees about their own spiritual blindness. How do you discern your areas of blindness?

1 Samuel 16:1b, 6-7, 10-13a - The Lord anointed young David as Israel’s next king because of what was in David’s “heart” and not by his external appearance. How would God assess the state of your heart?

Ephesians 5:8-14 - Paul urges the Ephesian Christians to “expose” the “fruitless works of darkness.” What challenge do you see in this spiritual exercise?
