FOURTH SUNDAY OF

Easter

APRIL 22, 2018

I am the good shepherd,
and I know mine and mine know me,
just as the Father knows me and I know the Father;
and I will lay down my life for the sheep.

John 10:14-15

DEAR PARISHIONERS OF ST. ANTHONY OF PADUA CHURCH & ANNUNCIATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY CHURCH,

Presbyteral Study Days

Father Hebert and I are attending the Presbyteral Study Days on April 24-25, 2018. (Presbyteral Study Days is the new name for the Clergy Study Days.) On Tuesday, Dr. James Pauley, STD, Professor of Theology and Catechetics at Franciscan University, and William Keimig, MPM, MA, Assistant Director of the Catechetical Institute at Franciscan University will address us. Tuesday's topic is "Faith Formation". On Wednesday, our topic is "History of the Diocese: 100 Years of Priesthood", with presentations given by several Diocesan Priests. Please keep all the priests of the Lafayette Diocese in your prayers as we gather for these days.

Because of these Study Days, we will not have mass or communion service on Wednesday at Annunciation.

Upcoming Activities

- Sunday, April 29, 2018: St. Anthony Parish Family Picnic is held following the 11:00 a.m. mass in St. Edmund School Cafeteria. Parishioners are welcome. Come enjoy God's family; connect to the Body of Christ.
- St. Edmund School Spring Fair is scheduled for May 4-6, 2018. It is a great opportunity for family gathering, reunions, new friendships developing.

Each Church Parish in the Diocese of Lafayette is asked to have a Church Parish Celebration in conjunction to the Centennial theme of "the Century of Love" for the Diocese of Lafayette. Annunciation of the BVM Parish had their celebration on the weekend of January 6/7, 2018 as the decree of establishment is dated January 8, 1963. The celebration for St. Anthony of Padua Parish is scheduled for June 12/13, 2018, as St. Anthony's Memorial is June 13th.

For this parish celebration, St. Anthony of Padua's Pastoral Council is creating a short DVD representing church parish life. The Council is especially looking for photos of the time period between 1983 to 2018. If anyone has photos and would like to share them, please place your name and your phone number on the rear of the photo, so we can call you for information. These can be brought to the rectory or given to Sarah Oliver, Connie Thibodeaux, or Candy Atteberry. Thanks for your efforts.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

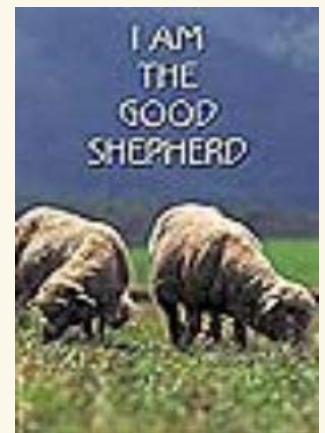

Question: Can you explain what we mean by a vocation or calling? I have heard this term used in many different contexts and am not sure what it means. Does it apply to religious life?

Answer: A vocation or calling refers to a spiritual experience whereby a person senses within oneself the closeness of God and what he is asking in one's life. It is a realization of what one's part in God's plan could be. Vocation comes in all kinds of ways. Some are as dramatic as St. Paul's, being knocked off his horse, blinded, and hearing God's voice. Others are less dramatic, often occurring over time through little events and personal interests. Others happen in a hurry, accompanied by great spiritual insight or conversion. We often think that this applies to religious vocation, but in fact, every Christian has a vocation, a calling to serve others in and through the Church. Whether married or single, religious or lay, we are all called to live out our baptismal commitment to preach and teach the Gospel message. Each of us has our own role to play in God's plan, and we become coworkers with God in the work of redemption. With a little confidence, a willing spirit, and God's grace, we can and will respond to his unique call.

Gospel of Fourth Sunday of Easter, Year B – John 10:11-18

Today's Gospel occurs in the middle of Jesus' ministry. At first, Jesus' words seem to be about the value of self-sacrifice in a leader. "I am the Good Shepherd ... I will lay down my life for the sheep." The Apostles likely would have accepted these words easily enough. But then comes something more strange. "I lay down my life in order to take it up again ... I have power to lay it down and power to take it up again." Only later, when Jesus opened the Scriptures to them after his resurrection, would the Apostles understand his words. Only then would they understand why such an act was necessary for the salvation of the world.

Even now, we may struggle with the necessity of Holy Week. How often do we hear complaints against the silence of God, as if He is the "hired man" who "runs away" from suffering? Jesus' life, death, and resurrection is our redemption in fact. God himself bears the full weight of sin's consequences.

The Paschal Mystery is also a sign that happens in full view of the human experience. We have seen Jesus lay down his life. We have seen him accompany others. "I know mine and mine know me." We have seen him reach those outside the traditional flock, "sheep not of this fold." Jesus is the Good Shepherd, not only in Scripture but in our daily lives.

While we can't experience physically walking alongside him like the Apostles did, the grace of our redemption continues through the Church. We are shepherded by the sacraments, by faith formation, by good mentors. At the same time, we are not only the sheep. In imitating Jesus, we, too, are invited to lay down our lives for others. We can be the hands, feet, and shepherd's crook of Christ.

Questions of the Week

First Reading – Acts 4:8-12 - Peter boldly testifies to the Sanhedrin that salvation comes only from the resurrected Christ. When have you been courageous with your faith?

Second Reading – 1 John 3:1-2 - John tells us that believers will one day see Jesus "as he is." What do you imagine that will be like?

Gospel Reading - John 10:11-18 - How does John's image of Jesus as "the good shepherd" draw you closer to Jesus?

Rev. Msgr. J. Robert Romero
